

Your employer is re-enrolling people back into their pension plan

The introduction of auto enrolment has helped many more people save for their future by giving them access to a workplace pension. As part of their ongoing duties, your employer must re-enrol certain people back into their pension plan every three years. This leaflet tells you what this means for you.

I'm contributing to the existing pension plan.

1. You don't need to do anything, your contributions will continue going into your plan.

3. You can get lots of information about your plan at yourplan.royallondon.com

2. It's a good idea to regularly review your plan to make sure you're on track for the retirement you expect.

4. You can check how your plan is doing by downloading our mobile app or by logging into online service.

Your pension savings are just a simple click or fingerprint away. Download our mobile app for free and make it easy to keep an eye on your pension savings.

Royal London
1 Thistle Street, Edinburgh EH2 1DG
royallondon.com

We're happy to provide your documents in a different format, such as Braille, large print or audio, just ask us when you get in touch.

All of our printed products are produced on stock which is from FSC® certified forests.

The Royal London Mutual Insurance Society Limited is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority. The firm is on the Financial Services Register, registration number 117672. It provides life assurance and pensions. Registered in England and Wales, company number 99064. Registered office: 55 Gracechurch Street, London, EC3V 0RL. Royal London Marketing Limited is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and introduces Royal London's customers to other insurance companies. The firm is on the Financial Services Register, registration number 302391. Registered in England and Wales company number 4414137. Registered office: 55 Gracechurch Street, London, EC3V 0RL