

Did you know that our pension provider is changing?

We've decided to move our pension plan to Royal London. Royal London are the UK's largest mutual life, pensions and investment company, and as pensions experts, they aim to make saving for your future as easy as possible. You've previously told us you want to opt out or stop making contributions to the existing pension plan. This leaflet tells you more about what this means for you.

I've previously told my employer that I want to opt out or stop making contributions to the existing pension plan.

1. As you've previously opted out or stopped contributions, you won't be enrolled into the new pension plan.

3. If you don't join the new pension plan, you might be automatically re-enrolled into the plan every three years.

2. If you want to join the new plan, you should let us know in writing.

4. For more information about the new plan, go to yourplan.royallondon.com

Royal London
1 Thistle Street, Edinburgh EH2 1DG
royallondon.com

We're happy to provide your documents in a different format, such as Braille, large print or audio, just ask us when you get in touch.
All of our printed products are produced on stock which is from FSC® certified forests.

The Royal London Mutual Insurance Society Limited is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority. The firm is on the Financial Services Register, registration number 117672. It provides life assurance and pensions. Registered in England and Wales, company number 99064. Registered office: 55 Gracechurch Street, London, EC3V 0RL. Royal London Marketing Limited is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and introduces Royal London's customers to other insurance companies. The firm is on the Financial Services Register, registration number 302391. Registered in England and Wales company number 4414137. Registered office: 55 Gracechurch Street, London, EC3V 0RL