

Welcome to the latest issue of Pension Matters.

In this issue, we're sharing a recording of our latest webinar 'What happens when I'm gone?', where your employees can learn more about death benefits and the importance of nominating beneficiaries. We're also announcing our social impact partnership with Cancer Research UK.

Share our recent webinar

Death isn't a topic any of us like to think about, but it's important your employees have things in place for their finances and pension when the time comes. Your employees can watch our pension experts Clare Moffat and Sarah Pennells as they cover tax implications, death benefits and beneficiaries.

Read more

Nominating beneficiaries support materials

We've created content that can help you remind employees about the importance of keeping your nominated beneficiaries updated.

Learn more

Tackling cancer inequalities, together

65% of our critical illness cover claims in 2022 related to cancer. So, we're proud to be donating £p1.2 million to Cancer Research UK as part of our new partnership focused on tackling cancer inequalities to support a fairer chance for positive outcomes.

Source: Royal London UK intermediary protection business claims paid (includes Children's Critical Illness) (1 January to 31 December 2022)

Find our more

Pelican Post newsletter

In our latest customer newsletter, Pelican Post, we announce our social impact partnership with Cancer Research UK, show our customers how they can catch up on our recent customer webinar 'What happens when I'm gone?' and read our latest cost of living report.

Download now

The Royal London Mutual Insurance Society Limited is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority. The firm is on the Financial Services Register, registration number 117672. It provides life assurance and pensions. Registered in England and Wales, company number 99064. Registered office: 80 Fenchurch Street, London, EC3M 4BY.

Royal London Marketing Limited is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and introduces Royal London's customers to other insurance companies. The firm is on the Financial Services Register, registration number 302391. Registered in England and Wales company number 4414137. Registered office: 80 Fenchurch Street, London, EC3M 4BY. The Royal London Group registered VAT number is 368 5244 27.

May 2023 N P EM 0051