

Welcome to the latest issue of Pension Matters.

In this issue we'll share articles to help you in the day to day running of your scheme. We've also included a copy of our latest customer newsletter, Pelican Post. And based on the current economic climate, this edition featured an additional investment market update.

We're making changes to our online automatic enrolment dashboard

Over the next week, we'll be making some small changes to our online automatic enrolment dashboard to improve some of the data that we're capturing for workers.

Find out more

Pelican Post newsletter

The latest customer newsletter Pelican Post, included details about what we're doing to support Pension Awareness 2022 as well as our latest investment market update. Based on the current economic situation we wanted to share more information about the impact this has on pension savings and how we manage the investments.

Read more

Cost of living report

Our second cost of living research looks at the changes people have already made to help with the cost of living and how they're coping with the current pressures on their finances.

Learn more

We're supporting Pension Awareness week

We're delighted to be working with Pension Awareness to bring your employees a free webinar with our pension expert about pensions and tax.

Learn more

We've added more functionality to our mobile app

Our recent enhancements make it easier for employees to access our new financial wellbeing service and transfer savings using our execution only transfer route.

Find out more

5 mistakes you should avoid with your will

October is Free Wills month and is the perfect time to write or review your will. Clare Moffat, our pensions & legal expert, explains the five things you should never do when it comes to writing a will*.

Learn more

**Will writing is not authorised and regulated by the FCA and the PRA.*

the Financial Services Register, registration number 117672. It provides life assurance and pensions and is a member of the Association of British Insurers. Registered in England and Wales number 99064.
Registered office: 55 Gracechurch Street, London, EC3V 0RL.

September 2022 N 14 EM 0019